

JOURNEY TO THE PAST WITH THE MYSTICAL ATMOSPHERE OF CAPPADOCIA

Cappadocia, considered the capital of mystery and the mystical world, deserves the definition of living art with its thousands of years of human history and million years of natural history. Fairy chimneys emerged as a result of the erosion of lava and ash from volcanic mountains by wind and rain over millions of years. When the mystical thoughts of ancient people were added to these natural miracles, one of the most mysterious settlements on our planet was formed. Cappadocia has been on the Unesco World Heritage list since 1985 and its historical texture is preserved.

Cappadocia has been a geography that has brought civilizations together since ancient times. It has been preferred throughout history with its fairy tale-like appearance and geographical structure and has hosted many civilizations. The history of the first people who settled in the region dates back to the Paleolithic Age. Cappadocia, which was uninhabitable for a while due to the destruction caused by active volcanoes, once again welcomed humanity as it entered the Neolithic Age. As a result of archaeological studies, we can see how old the history of Cappadocia is from the stone tools remaining from the Neolithic Age.
